Real-time meet and greet for adult children abroad

Do you live out of the country? Do you miss opportunities to learn about NewBridge and the supports we provide because of the time difference? If you answered “yes,” then we need your feedback! If representatives from our independent living supportive service team were available to host a virtual meet and greet during a time that works for multiple time zones, would you be interested in joining us?

If so, kindly reach out to let us know what you might hope to gain from the opportunity. Looking forward to hearing from you!
